Summary:

If you haven't visited one of our two shelters recently, you are missing out on one of the most surprising and rewarding experiences of your life. Here are some important things you should know to prepare for your tour of the SPCA of Central Florida.

House Rules:

- Please use indoor voices. No yelling aloud.
- Do not stick your fingers in the cages.
- Stay with your group.
- Do not yell. Always ask questions by raising your hand.
- Always disinfect.
